3. Read the following passage carefully and give answer to the questions written below it. 4
- There seems to be a general opinion in this country that Sardar Patel was rather of a harsh and rough temperament. Men call him the 'Iron man of India.' No doubt, he was an Iron man in the sense that one could rely on him for strict and efficient administration. But as a man, to those who had a good fortune of coming into close contact with him, he was kind and considerate. At times he became emotional, where his personal friends and followers were concerned. However, it goes without saying that the Sardar had great skill in organizing affairs. He knew the way of picking people and putting them in their proper places. Once he judged a man and found him correct, he trusted him fully and got him to do anything he wanted.
- Q.1. Why was Sardar Patel called the 'Iron man of India'?
